The following information is in response to the inquiry from US Congressman Robert K. Dornan (R Calif.) through your office concerning the number of Soviet forced labor camps located within the Vladimir Oblast of the Soviet Union. According to our all-source data base there are 10 forced labor camps in this oblast; the one at the city of Vladimir is a combination urban prison and forced labor camp. We estimate that there are some 15,000 prisoners in these camps. [REDACTED]
